

TRESPASSING

The Waterloo Community Schools welcome students, parents, volunteers, and visitors into our facilities. However, any person who violates district policy may be prohibited from being on school property.

Students

- A student who is on out-of-school suspension or expulsion is not allowed on any school property or to attend any school activity, including athletic events.
- A student who is on in-school suspension must go directly to and from the assigned room for in-school suspension and is not allowed on any other area of school property or to attend any school activity, including athletic events.
- During regular school hours, students do not have permission to be on the premises of any school other than the one to which they are assigned, except for school sponsored visits.
- A student who has been transferred to another school for disciplinary reasons, will be considered a trespasser at his or her former school unless he/she has written administrative permission to be present on that school property.

Parents/Volunteers/Visitors who are on school premises must abide by the guidelines set forth in Board policies 900.6 Visitors to the Schools and 902.0 Public Conduct at School Activities. Violation of these policies may result in permission to be on school premises being denied.

Notice and Penalty

A person who is found in or on school property, at any time, day or night, other than the place to which he/she has permission to be, will be considered trespassing. After notice is provided by a school official, a person who refuses to leave or returns to the property is subject to arrest.

Building administrators may make exceptions in specific cases.
